1	Weekly presentations both challenged my choreographic style, but also made me more comfortable performing my own movement in front of people.
2	I had never tried choreographing before taking this course and I learned so much. I especially appreciate that Bridget taught us how to choreograph with and without a motif score.
3	Class discussions! I feel like I got a lot out of discussing pieces and the book with the group. Also, having a notebook and scribbling down everything was really helpful in generating new knowledge and ideas!

1	For the final project, we had to choreograph a piece featuring multiple dancers. However, we had only practiced working with multiple dancers once during the semester and one of the dancers was ourselves. If we had experienced working with multiple dancers more than once, the final wouldn't have been so overwhelming. The day of the final showcase was quite stressful and confusing. This could be improved in the future by having a posted list of the performance order and having the dancers complete their evaluations prior to the performance day. Also, I was a bit concerned about the method of grading the final motif score based on the live performance (and video recording of this). I noticed that some of the dancers made mistakes or forgot choreography during the performance and I realize that this could negatively affect the previously written motif scores. If we were required to present our pieces (or just the part from the score) at an earlier class meeting, this would allow Bridget to see what our choreography is supposed to look like in case the dancers make mistakes during the final showcase.

1	If there was a thing beyond excellent, I'd give this course that. One of my favorite classes ever!
2	Excellent course that challenges each student, and takes everyone out of their comfort zone. Everyone leaves a stronger dancer and choreographer than they were before.
